Portfolio Objective

The Imara MET Equity Fund is a general equity portfolio. The Fund largely mirrors the successful Imara Houseview investment policy and may consist of financially sound equity securities, property shares and property related securities listed on exchanges and assets in liquid form. In selecting securities for this portfolio, where possible, the manager shall seek to sustain high long-term capital growth.

Managers Comment

The fund underperformed the market during the month delivering a return of 3.5% compared to the JSE All Share return of 4.3% mainly due to a strong performance by resource stocks on the back of a weaker rand.

The world economy remains in a low inflationary or even deflationary cycle and is characterised by inadequate aggregate demand and excess savings. Globally, QE programmes have not yet led to increased final consumption but have managed to stabilise investment markets at least. Markets, in our view, will remain data dependant for a while still as fundamental underpinnings gain traction.

On the local economic front, the demand side GDP growth breakdown indicated that consumers are under pressure. Debt levels remain high and growth in remuneration continued to slow. Household consumer expenditure slowed to 2.3% quarter on quarter in 1Q13 from 2.4% previously, led by durable and non-durable goods.

We remain concerned about the trade deficit and the impact it might have on the local currency and potential investment outflows going forward despite the deficit narrowing to R11bn in May after widening to R15.9bn in April.

Despite rebounding strongly in July, local equities remain fairly valued. The yield gap between listed shares and long bond yields currently stands at 2.2% which effectively is the hurdle rate for company earnings to grow at to compensate investors for investing in risky assets. The current earnings yield on equities is 6%, so valuations are not stretched by any means. We remain cautious on resources despite offering value. Industrial stocks, particularly rand hedges, appear expensive but the risk of a material derating in our view is unlikely as earnings upgrades are expected due to the weaker exchange rate.

Collective Investment Schemes (CIS) in securities are generally medium to long term investments. The value of participatory interests may go down as well as up and past performance is not necessarily a guide to the future. All CIS are traded at ruling prices and can engage in borrowing and scrip lending. A schedule of fees and charges and maximum commissions is available on request. Commission may be paid and if so, would be included in the overall costs. Forward pricing is used. Fluctuations or movements in exchange rates may cause the value of underlying international investments to go up or down. MET Collective Investments Limited reserves the right to close and reopen certain portfolios from time to time in order to manage them more efficiently. The Fund may borrow up to 10% of the market value of the portfolio to bridge insufficient liquidity. Different classes of participatory interests apply to certain portfolios, which are subject to different fees and charges. Performance figures quoted are from Morningstar/MoneyMate, as at the date of this factsheet for a lump sum investment, using NAV-NAV prices with income distributions reinvested. Service charges and investment manager charges are calculated and accrued on the daily market value of the investment and paid out monthly. MET Collective Investments Limited is the Manager of the MET Collective Investments Scheme, and a full member of the Association for Savings and Investment SA. Total Expense Ratio (TER)

	Class A
Portfolio ongoing fee	1.50%
Portfolio costs	0.01%
TER - excluding performance fees	1.51%
Performance fees	0.00%
VAT	0.21%
Total TER - incl VAT	1.72%

Please note: the TER has been calculated using data from 1 April 2012 until 31 March 2013. The TER is disclosed as % of the average Net Asset Value of the portfolio that were incurred as charges, levies and fees related to the management of the portfolio and underlying portfolios. The TER is adjusted for significant subsequent portfolio restructurings and/or fee changes.

A higher TER ratio does not necessarily imply a poor return, nor does a low TER imply a good return. The current TER can not be regarded as an indication of future TER's.
