Portfolio Objective

The Imara MET Equity Fund is a general equity portfolio. The Fund largely mirrors the successful Imara Houseview investment policy and may consist of financially sound equity securities, property shares and property related securities listed on exchanges and assets in liquid form. In selecting securities for this portfolio, where possible, the manager shall seek to sustain high long-term capital growth.

Managers Comment

Although stock markets in general have performed well year to date, we anticipate further price increases for the remainder of the year. Chances are that economic growth, particularly in the US, might surprise on the upside supported by the fact that more than 2/3rds of US companies that reported earnings over the last quarter beat expectations. This together with weak global inflationary pressures and low negative real yields from income producing asset classes supports our argument for more positive returns to come from equities in 2013.

The rand has been one of the worst performing currencies year to date, depreciating by 7.5% against the dollar driven by the large current account deficit, lower commodity prices and labour unrest. Rand weakness and expected above inflationary wage increases could pose a threat to inflation in the second half of the year.

The outlook for resource counters remain muted despite the benefit of a weaker currency as there is no sign yet of a rebound in spot commodity prices. Supply constraints should however over the medium term have a positive impact on spot prices which will further be buoyed by sustained positive economic data.

Consumer demand remains weak as suggested by a sharp drop in the Kagiso PMI in March which came in at 49.3 compared to the sharp jump in February to 53.6. Manufacturing also contracted by 2.9% y/y from 3.7% previously supporting the weak demand environment. On the positive side, the RMB/BER Business Confidence Index rose in the first quarter mainly due to pre-emptive demand for new vehicles and larger trade items as further currency weakness is expected.

Collective Investment Schemes (CIS) in securities are generally medium to long term investments. The value of participatory interests may go down as well as up and past performance is not necessarily a guide to the future. All CIS are traded at ruling prices and can engage in borrowing and scrip lending. A schedule of fees and charges and maximum commissions is available on request. Commission may be paid and if so, would be included in the overall costs. Forward pricing is used. Fluctuations or movements in exchange rates may cause the value of underlying international investments to go up or down. MET Collective Investments Limited reserves the right to close and reopen certain portfolios from time to time in order to manage them more efficiently. The Fund may borrow up to 10% of the market value of the portfolio to bridge insufficient liquidity. Different classes of participatory interests apply to certain portfolios, which are subject to different fees and charges. Performance figures quoted are from Morningstar/MoneyMate, as at the date of this factsheet for a lump sum investment, using NAV/NAV prices with income distributions reinvested. Service charges and investment manager charges are calculated and accrued on the daily market value of the investment and paid out monthly. MET Collective Investments Limited is the Manager of the MET Collective Investments Scheme, and a full member of the Association for Savings and Investment SA. 	Class A
Portfolio ongoing fee	1.50%
Portfolio costs	0.07%
TER - excluding performance fees	1.57%
Performance fees	0.00%
VAT	0.22%
Total TER - incl VAT	1.79%

Please note: the TER has been calculated using data from 1 January 2012 until 31 December 2012. The TER is disclosed as % of the average Net Asset Value of the portfolio that were incurred as charges, levies and fees related to the management of the portfolio and underlying portfolios. The TER is adjusted for significant subsequent portfolio restructurings and/or fee changes.

A higher TER ratio does not necessarily imply a poor return, nor does a low TER imply a good return. The current TER can not be regarded as an indication of future TER's.
